

Here's A Chance To Honor Someone Who Made A Difference
In Our Industry This Year.
April 15 Deadline!!!

Nominate A Deserving Company Or Individual For The NCPCM Dean Cline Vendor-of-the-Year Award

For the sixteenth year, the North Carolina Petroleum and Convenience Marketers will honor a member company or individual for excellence in service in our industry or Association with the NCPCM Dean Cline Vendor-of-the-Year Award.

NCPCM will recognize the Vendor-of-the-Year with a special presentation at the 2017 NCPCM/SCPMA Joint Convention in June. In addition, the winner will be featured in the Argus, the Association's newsletter.

All nominations will be considered equally, without regard to the vendor's size. This honor is designed to reward a member company for its service to the c-store and petroleum industry and/or the North Carolina Petroleum and Convenience Marketers. To make your nomination, use the enclosed form as a guideline to tell us why you think this company or individual would be a deserving recipient of the award. This could include service to NCPCM (such as committee involvement or program sponsorships), service to the c-store or petroleum industry (such as innovative or beyond-the-call customer service), or service to the c-store or petroleum family (such as support in times of need).

These suggestions are not intended to exclude other activities, so don't limit your responses on the nomination form. Supporting documents, such as letters or newspaper clippings, will be welcomed but may not be returned, so please only send us copies! This program is a wonderful opportunity to honor a deserving company or individual, including your own company. (Who knows better what you've done?)

Please return the enclosed form to: NCPCM, 7300 Glenwood Ave., Raleigh, NC 27612. The nomination form and any additional information will need to be returned to the NCPCM office by April 15, 2017. If you have any questions, please call NCPCM in Raleigh at (919) 782-4411 or email tcaltan@ncpcm.org. Thank you for your interest and commitment.
